What Is a Fake Book?

One of the most useful possessions any musician can have is a fake book. The concise, one-line music notation consisting of melody, lyrics and chord symbols acts as a "musical shorthand" that makes it possible to have hundreds of songs in just one book. As a reference guide to "fake" arrangements or for singing purposes, the fake book is an invaluable resource for all musicians – hobbyists to professionals.

Two special listings provide handy references and can be found on the following pages:

3 Alphabetical Listing
All songs are listed alphabetically with the page number on which each song can be found.

11 Classified Song Listing
Songs are grouped into popular categories to simplify locating various styles of music.

Additional Lyrics

2. Now I've heard a cryin' man
Is half a man with no sense of pride,
But if I have to cry to keep you,
I don't mind weepin' if it'll keep you by my side.
Chorus

3. If I have to sleep on your doorstep all night and day
Just to keep you from walking away,
Let your friends laugh, even this I can stand,
'Cause I wanna keep you any way I can,
Chorus

4. Now I've got a love so deep in the pit of my heart,
And each day it grows more and more,
I'm not ashamed to call and plead to you, baby,
If pleading keeps you from walking out that door.
Chorus

2. Whatever happened to Tuesday and so slow
Going down the old mine with a transistor radio
Standing in the sunlight laughing
Hiding behind a rainbow's wall
Slipping and a-sliding
All along the water fall
With you, my Brown Eyed Girl
You, my Brown Eyed Girl.
Do you remember when we used to sing:
Chorus

3. So hard to find my way, now that I'm all on my own
I saw you just the other day, my, how you have grown
Cast my memory back there, Lord
Sometime I'm overcome thinking 'bout
Making love in the green grass
Behind the stadium
With you, my Brown Eyed Girl
With you, my Brown Eyed Girl.
Do you remember when we used to sing:
Chorus

Additional Lyrics

3. I am The Entertainer, been all around the world,
I've played all kinds of palaces and laid all kinds of girls.
I can't remember faces, I don't remember names.
But what the hell, you know it's just as well
'cause after a while and a thousand miles
it all becomes the same.

4. I am The Entertainer, I bring to you my songs,
I'd like to spend a day or two but I can't stay that long.
I got to meet expenses, I got to stay in line,
Got to get those fees to the agencies and I loved to stay but there's bills to pay so I just don't have the time.

5. I am The Entertainer, I've come to do my show, you've heard my latest record, it's been on the radio.
It took me years to write it, they were the best years of my life.
If you're gonna have a hit you gotta make it fit so they cut it down to 3:05.

6. I am The Entertainer, the idol of my age.
I make all kinds of money when I go on stage.
You see me in the papers, I've been in the magazines.
But if I go cold, I won't get sold,
I get put in the back in the discount rack like another can of beans.

7. I am The Entertainer and I know just where I stand, another serenader and another long-haired band.
Today I am your champion, I may have won your hearts.
But I know the game, you'll forget my name,
I won't be here in another year
if I don't stay on the charts.

Additional Lyrics

2. People came for miles around, everyone was there;
Yoko brought her walrus, there was magic in the air.
And over in the corner, much to my surprise,
Mr. Hughes hid in Dylan's shoes, wearing his disguise. (Chorus)

3. I played them all the old songs, I thought that's why they came;
No one heard the music, we didn't look the same.
I said hello to Mary-Lou, she belongs to me;
When I sang a song about a honky-tonk, it was time to leave. (Chorus)

4. Someone opened up a closet door and out stepped Johnny B. Goode;
Playing guitar like a ring an' a bell, and lookin' like he should.
If you gotta play at garden parties, I wish you a lot a' luck;
But if memories were all I sang, I'd rather drive a truck. (Chorus)

Additional Lyrics

A cowboy loves smokey ole pool rooms and clear mountain mornings.
Little warm puppies and children and girls of the night.
Them that don't know him won't like him and them that do sometimes won't know how to take him.
He's not wrong he's just different and his pride won't let him do things to make you think he's right.

2. Now, if you're ever in Houston
Oh, you'd better walk by
Oh, you'd better not gamble, boy
I say you'd better not fight
Well now the sheriff, he'll grab you
And his boys will pull you down.
And then before you know it
You're penitentiary-bound.
(To Chorus)

3. Here comes Miss Lucy
How in the world do you know?
I can tell by her apron
And by the clothes she wore
An umbrella on her shoulder
She got a paper in her hand
She gonna see the warden
To try to free her man.

3. When they had the gold rush folks started running to Cal-i-for-ni-ay,
They all had dreams of making a million bucks a day.
That's the story that went around but here's the real low-down:
"Put The Blame On Mame," boys, "Put The Blame On Mame."
She caused the gold rush, It's my belief,
Diggin' gold from some guy's teeth.
So you can "Put The Blame On Mame," boys, "Put The Blame On Mame."

4. Remember the blizzard back in Manhattan, in eighteen-eighty-six?
They say the traffic was tied up and folks were in a fix.
That's the story that went around but here's the real low-down:
"Put The Blame On Mame," boys, "Put The Blame On Mame."
Mame gave a chump such an ice-cold no,
For seven days they shoveled snow.
So you can "Put The Blame On Mame," boys, "Put The Blame On Mame."

5. There was once a shootin' up in the Klondike when they got Dan Magrew Folks were puttin' the blame on the lady known as "Lou."
That's the story that went around but here's the real low-down:
"Put The Blame On Mame," boys, "Put The Blame On Mame."
Mame did a dance and she dropped her fan
That's the thing that murdered Dan
So you can "Put The Blame On Mame," boys, "Put The Blame On Mame."

2. Now we come up on different streets
They both were streets of shame.
Both dirty, both mean,
Yes and the dream was just the same.
And I dreamed your dream for you
So now your dream is real.
How can you look at me
As if I'm just another one of your deals.

When you can fall for chains of silver
You can fall for chains of gold
You can fall for pretty strangers
And the promises they hold.
You promised me everything,
You promised me thick and thin
Now you can just say oh Romeo, yeah,
You know I used to have a scene with him.

Juliet, when we made love you used to cry
You said I loved you like the stars above,
You said I'd love you till I die.
There's a place for us
You know the movie song,
So when you gonna realise
It was just that the time was wrong,
Juliet

4. We took her groc'ries to the checkout stand;
The food was totalled up and bagged.
We stood there, lost in our embarrassment,
as the conversation lagged.

5. We went to have ourselves a drink or two,
but couldn't find an open bar.
We bought a sixpack at the liquor store and we drank it in her car.

6. She said she's married her an architect, who kept her warm and safe and dry.
She would have liked to say she loved the man,
but she didn't like to lie.

7. I said the years had been a friend to her and that her eyes were still as blue.
But in those eyes I wasn't sure if I saw doubt or gratitude.

8. She said she saw me in the record stores, and that I must be doing well.
I said the audience was heavenly,
but the traveling was Hell.

Additional Lyrics

2. How does it feel when the girl next to you says she loves you?
It seems so unfair when there's love everywhere, but there's none for me. (To Chorus:)

3. Someone to take a walk by the lake; dear Lord, let it be me.
Someone who's shy; someone who'll cry at sad movies.

4. I know I would die if I ever found out she was foolin' me.
You're just a dream; and as real as it seems, I ain't that lucky. (To Chorus:)

5. All of my friends have a ring on their finger; they've someone;
Someone to care for them: it ain't fair, I got no one.

6. The car overheated, I called up and pleaded, there's help on the way.
I called you collect; you didn't accept, you had nothing to say. (To Chorus:)

3. You ought to see dat stove pipe brown of mine, lak he owns de Diamon' Joseph line.
He'd make a cross-eyed ol' man go stone blind,
blacker than midnight, teeth lak flags of truce, blackest man in de whole St. Louis.
Blacker de berry, sweeter is de juice.
About a crap game he knows a pow'ful lot,
but when work-time comes he's on de dot.
Gwine to ask him for a cold ten-spot.
What it takes to git it, he's certainly got.

Chorus

A black-headed gal make a freight train jump the track.
Said a black-headed gal make a freight train jump the track.
But a long tall gal makes a preacher ball the jack.

Extra Choruses

Lawd, a blonde-headed woman makes a good man leave the town.
I said a blonde-headed woman makes a good man leave the town.
But a red-headed woman makes a boy slap his papa down.

O ashes to ashes and dust to dust,
I said ashes to ashes and dust to dust,
if my blues don't get you my jazzing must.

Additional Lyrics

3. You check out Guitar George, he knows all them fancy chords.
He's just rhythm, gonna make that guitar cry and make it sing
This and an old guitar is just all he can afford,
When he gets up under the coloured lights, gonna play his thing.

4. And Harry doesn't mind if he doesn't make that fancy scene.
He's got a daytime job, he's doin' quite all right, thank you very much.
He can do the honky-tonk just like anything,
Savin' it up for Friday night
With the Sultans, with the Sultans Of Swing.

5. And a crowd of young boys, they're just foolin' around in the corner,
Drunk and dressed in their baggies and their best King's Road.
They don't give a damn about any trumpet playin' band;
It ain't what they call rock and roll.
And the Sultans, yeah the Sultans, they played Creole.

6. Instrumental

7. And then The Man, he steps right up to the microphone
And says, at last, just as the time-bell rings:
"Thank you, good night, now it's time to go home."
And he makes it fast with one more thing:
"We are the Sultans, we are the Sultans Of Swing."

3. You can haunt any house by yourself,
Be a man, or a mouse by yourself;
You can act like a King on a throne,
There are lots of things that you can do alone!
But!!! "Takes Two To Tango" etc.

4. You can fight like a champ by yourself,
You can lick any stamp by yourself;
You can be very brave on the 'phone,
There are lots of things that you can do alone!
But!!! "Takes Two To Tango" etc.

5. You can bark like a dog by yourself,
Or get lost in a fog by yourself;
You can hoot like an owl on your own,
There are lots of things that you can do alone!
But!!! "Takes Two To Tango" etc.

6. You can get very old by yourself,
Catch a fish, or a cold by yourself;
Dig a ditch, strike it rich on your own,
There are lots of things that you can do alone!
But!!! "Takes Two To Tango" etc.

Additional Lyrics

2. My friends from college, they're all married now; they have their houses and their lawns.
They have their silent noons, tearful nights, angry dawns.
Their children hate them for the things they're not; they hate themselves for what they are;
And yet they drink, they laugh, close the wounds, hide the scar.
Chorus

3. You say that we can keep our love alive. Babe, all I know is what I see.
The couples cling and claw and drown in love's debris.
You say we'll soar like two birds thru the clouds, but soon you'll cage me on your shelf.
I'll never learn to be just me first, by myself.

Additional Lyrics

2. We get packages from home, we get movies, we get shows.
We get speeches from our skipper,
and advice from Tokyo Rose.
We get letters doused with perfume,
we get dizzy from the smell.
What don't we get?
You know darn well!
(Recitation - ad lib:)
We got nothin' to put on a clean white suit for.
We got nothin' to look masculine and cute for!
Chorus

3. We feel lonely and we long for the fair and gentle sex, we would like to feel the feeling of some arms around our necks.
We feel hungry as the wolf felt when he met Red Riding Hood.
What don't we feel?
We don't feel good!
(Recitation - ad lib:)
Lots of things in life are beautiful,
but brother, there is one particular thing that is nothin' whatsoever in any way, shape or form like any other.

2. Look what they done to my brain, Ma.
Look what they done to my brain.
Well, they picked it like a chicken bone,
and I think I'm half insane, Ma.
Look what they done to my song.

3. I wish I could find a good book to live in.
Wish I could find a good book.
Well, if I could find a really good book
I'd never have to come out and look at what they done to my song.

4. But maybe it'll be alright, Ma.
Maybe it'll all be o.k.
Well, if the people are buying tears
I'll be rich some day, Ma.
Look what they done to my song.

5. Ils ont changé ma chanson Ma.
Ils ont changé ma chanson.
C'est la seule chose que je peux faire
Et ce n'est pas bon Ma.
Ils ont changé ma chanson.

6. Look what they done to my song, Ma.
Look what they done to my song.
Well, they tied it up in a plastic bag and turned it upside down, Man.
Look what they done to my song.

7. Look what they done to my song, Ma.
Look what they done to my song.
It's the only thing I could do alright and they turned it upside down.
Look what they done to my song.

Oh, when will they ever learn?
Oh, when will they ever learn?

4. Where have all the soldiers gone? Long time passing.
Where have all the soldiers gone? Long time ago.
Where have all the soldiers gone?
They've gone to graveyards, every one.
Oh, when will they ever learn?
Oh, when will they ever learn?

5. Where have all the graveyards gone? Long time passing.
Where have all the graveyards gone? Long time ago.
Where have all the graveyards gone?
They're covered with flowers, every one.
Oh, when will they ever learn?
Oh, when will they ever learn?

6. Where Have All The Flowers Gone? Long time passing.
Where Have All The Flowers Gone? Long time ago.
Where Have All The Flowers Gone?

3. Young man, are you listening to me?
I said, young man, what do you want to be?
I said, young man, you can make real your dreams
But you've got to know this one thing.

4. No man does it all by himself.
I said young man put your pride on the shelf.
And just go there to the Y.M.C.A.
I'm sure they can help you today.
Chorus

5. Young man, I was once in your shoes
I said, I was down and out and with the blues.
I felt no man cared if I were alive.
I felt the whole world was so jive.

6. That's when someone come up to me
And said, "Young man, take a walk up the street.
It's a place there called the Y.M.C.A.
They can start you back on your way."
Chorus

2. Time is tight; I'm lost for words,
That's not like me.
Only your eyes could know the way I feel,
And how much I need you now with me.
Chorus

3. I know I'll be the one to lose if I'm so wrong
Don't be afraid to put your heart on the line.
I'll take you where I know you belong.

4. Take my thoughts away beyond the things see.
"Sometimes I feel just a word away,"hould be.
You'll say; oh, how I really feel it should be.

Additional Lyrics

3. I sat on the roof and kicked off the moss, well a few of the verses, well they've got me quite cross,
but the sun's been quite kind while I wrote this song, it's for people like you that keep it turned on.

4. So excuse me forgetting but these things I do, you see I've forgotten if they're green or they're blue,
anyway the thing is what I really mean,
yours are the sweetest eyes I've ever seen.
